

Preparedness: Inside and Out

September 17 Noon - 3 p.m.

Cleveland Metroparks partnered with the Cuyahoga County Office of Emergency Management in recognition of National Preparedness Month. This initiative encourages Americans to take steps to prepare for emergencies in their homes, businesses, schools, and communities. Tips for preparedness and outdoor safety precautions will be presented.

Noon

Cuyahoga County Office of Emergency Management
Introduction and Welcome

12:15 p.m.

12:15 p.m.
WKYC Michael Estime
How Weather Forecasts Prepare the Community

1 p.m.

Cleveland Metroparks Ranger
Being Aware of Your Surroundings

1:30 p.m.

Cleveland Metroparks Naturalist
Marty Clabrese
Trail/Hiking Safety
*outdoor program

2:30 p.m.

National Weather Service Kirk Lombardy
Weather Hazards of Northeast Ohio

Several participating agencies such as the County Office of Emergency Management, Greater Cleveland Red Cross, Citizen Corp, Senior and Adult Services, Cleveland Metroparks, and the National Weather Service (NWS) will have information displays to help families understand the most common threats associated with severe weather.

Rocky River Nature Center
24000 Valley Parkway
North Olmsted
440-734-6660
clevelandmetroparks.com

