Brooklyn, Ohio, September 14, 2017 - Alan Adams and Stephen Nicholas, managing members of Brooklyn Pointe, LLC, along with other dignitaries, including Mayor Katherine Gallagher, broke ground on the long awaited 68,000 square foot senior living community to be located at 4800 Idlewood Drive near the Ridge Park Square Shopping Center. The Brooklyn Pointe project will consist of 58 assisted living apartments and 22 memory care apartments along with common areas. This project will be the first of its kind in the city of Brooklyn and will employ 35 new full time employees and 18 part-time employees.
